Labor Reform Among the Miners—The Spotted Fever.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

SCRANTON, Penn., March 8.—The leaders of the Labor Reformers have been making strenuous efforts among the miners of the valley to form a respectable organization, but they have failed. Last night a meeting was called in this city, composed entirely of Irishmen, who are brought to support a man named WM. H. STARKEY for District Attorney. When the Irish learned he was a Republican, refused to attend the meeting, and unequivocally declared GRANT as their choice for President. They totally ignore the Labor Reform Party.

The black or spotted fever is an epidemic in this city. The public schools of Hyde Park, Bellevue and Providence have been closed in order to prevent the spreading of the disease. Numerous deaths occur daily, and the anxiety among parents is intense. The fever is known among the medical fraternity as cerebro spinal meningitis. E. R. W.

THE OIL MONOPOLY.

The Excitement on the Oil Regions—Scenes at Yesterday's Meeting in Oil City—Pipes to be Laid to Lake Erie and the Ohio River.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

TITUSVILLE, Penn., March 8.—The people of the Oil Regions, during the last eighteen days, have been in a state of profound excitement over the discovery of a great monopoly, known as the Southern Improvement Company. The founders of the Company reside outside of the region, and with the exception, perhaps, of a few iron tanks for storing crude oil, they own no property here. The Company is incorporated under two acts passed in the Pennsylvania Legislature—one in 1855, and the other, supplemental to the first, in 1870. The powers conferred by both these acts pass extraordinary latitude; in fact, the limits cannot easily be defined. The principal parties to this combination, so far as has been ascertained, are Messrs. P. H. WATSON, President of Germantown Railroad; ROCKEFELLER & PAIRE, of Cleveland; LOCKHARZ & FREW, of Waring; LOGAN and FAWCETT, of Pittsburg; J. P. LOGAN, of Philadelphia; J. A. BOSTWICK, of New-York, together with the three great railways running from the oil region to the seaboard, viz.: the Pennsylvania Central, the New-York and Erie, and the Atlantic and Great Western, and the New-York Central and Lake Shore, with all other roads, under their controll, which, running from the heart of the oil region, constitute their feeders. By no other railways than these three trunk lines can petroleum find its way to the Atlantic Ocean. The Company has been organized for nearly a month. The precise nature of the organization, its purposes, and the scope of its proposed operations, have never been published, but from disclosures made by different parties who were invited to enter the Company, and by this means became acquainted with its real founders, as well as such general facts as are now derived from the members themselves, the intelligents of the oil region have sufficiently been aroused to the discovery of a most formidable conspiracy organized to seize upon and appropriate their peculiar property to its own use, all to be done under the cover of a legal charter. The capital stock of this Company, which may be increased indefinitely, is at present at $20,000,000, but behind this is an amount ten times as great. The oil tonnage are to be distributed among the three lines, giving to the Pennsylvania Central forty-five per cent., and to the New-York and Erie and the New-York Central each twenty-seven and a half per cent. The combination through freight on oil to New-York and Philadelphia is to be $2 75 per barrel, of which there is to be given to the Southern Improvement Company a rate of $2 a barrel, thus completely preventing competition in shipping oil from any one outside of this Company. But transportation of oil is only a part of the Company's business. They have already purchased all the large refineries, both at Cleveland and Pittsburg, and when once in possession of works sufficient in capacity to refine all the product, they become masters of the situation. Nobody could compete with the Company in refining and shipping oil. The Company, thus standing between producers and consumers, could dictate, both in buying and selling, just such terms as should suit its pleasure; both producers and consumers would be at its mercy. Such a combination, embracing in its membership three great railroad corporations, whose aims already grasp the continent, if successful in its present contemplated operation, would form the most dangerous monopoly ever existing in America.

Monday, Feb. 26, the freight on oil from the Creek to the seaboard, without previous notice to shippers, was increased over $1 per barrel. The excitement on the announcement of this was intense. On the evening of the 27th, the Paschall Opera-house, in Titusville, was utterly packed from parquet to dome by delegations from every part of the region. A general committee, composed of the best men representing the various producing districts was formed, and after considerable discussion the Convention adjourned to meet at Oil City, March 1. On the 29th ult. the General Committee met and appointed from its number several sub-committees, to whom was especially intrusted the consideration of such plans as might afford both immediate and permanent relief. The Committees worked resolutely and faithfully. The meeting at Oil City was attended by another large crowd. The Academy of Music was occupied by the Convention during the six days' session of order prevailed. The Committees made but partial reports, which were discussed in detail. The Convention adjourned to meet at the Court-house, in Franklin, on the 6th following. This meeting was as largely attended as the two former ones, were the same good order. The best talent in the region was employed in drafting plans for uniting the oil producers upon some common scheme for their mutual protection. The Committees were upon the construction of new railroads, upon additional pipe lines, upon procuring legislation, and for other objects.

The meeting at Franklin did not complete the work, and adjourned to meet again to-day at Oil City. Night and day from that adjournment till last evening the Special Committee continued their labors, and succeeded in agreeing upon a plan for organizing the entire oil region. The General Committee adopted their reports, which were unanimously ratified by the Convention at large. All through the sittings of the Conventions there has been exhibited a large amount of coolness and patience on the part of the great crowds in attendance. The name of the organization, adopted today, is "The Producers' Union." The plan of its operations is such that not a barrel of oil will be allowed to go to the Southern Improvement Company, or any road which refuses to enter the Union. The Union will allow those roads capable of making any additions to repair a temporary organization from them, assuring them that they have no desire to control over-production, but only to prevent unjust discrimination. Without going into details, it may be said that if the Southern Improvement Company shall persevere in its attempts, each grade and refined oil for foreign export will find its way to the seaboard, a part by Lake Erie, the Welland Canal and Lake Ontario and the Lawrence River, and a part down the river Ohio. Pittsburg, by the aid of Mexican, is being made to lay pipes for carrying the oil from the refiner there to Erie and Pittsburg. Pipes is already in the oil region capacity for refining about one-half of the production. In the meantime the Pennsylvania Legislature is being asked to give us relief.

NEW-HAMPSHIRE CAMPAIGN.

Hon. Lyceurgus on Tammany Frauds—A Sharp Contrast—Democratic Frauds.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

MANCHESTER, N. H., March 8.—A large Republican meeting was held in this city to-night, and was addressed by Hon. MARY A. LIVERMORE. She was even more powerful than last night, and, referring to the charge that Gen. GRANT's Administration was corrupt, referred again to Tammany frauds as exposed by the TIMES. Democrats had punished their chief thief by electing him to the New-York Senate, while Mayor HALL, another of the gang, is engaged with all the insolent swagger of his character in badgering Courts and urging technicalities of law to escape punishment for his acts. On the other hand Gen. GRANT has placed Republican thieves in jail. Those remarks of the lady elicited great applause. It was arranged that Hon. JOE E. BROWN should speak after Mrs. LIVERMORE, but although he was in the city this part of the programme was not carried out.

Letters continue to be received by the Republican State Committee from responsible citizens in many towns under Democratic control, alleging that frauds are being perpetrated to secure the election of Democrats, and a belief that they will succeed. The Committee, after a careful canvass of the Democratic vote, will be considerably swelled by these operations. There is confidence, however, that they will be badly beaten in spite of all the frauds they may be able to commit. E. C.

MEXICO.

Fractions of the Revolutionary Leaders Uniting for the Government's Overthrow—Troops and Money Pressed into Service.

CITY OF MEXICO, March 1, via HAVANA, March 8.—Gov. PESQUEIRA has defeated the revolutionists under Gen. MARQUEZ, in Sinaloa. Col. OMAÑA has defeated 2,000 revolutionists under PORRA, at Llano Sonalon. Gen. OCHOA has routed the revolutionists in Jalisco. The Diario Oficial contradicts the reported defeats of Gens. OCHOA and CORELLA, stating that the rebels were cut to pieces at Aguas Calientes. Gen. ALATORRE's division has arrived at La Pueblo. Gen. CRUZ, with an Government cavalry, has pronounced near Puebla. The Government officials in Oaxaca have confiscated the estates of the brothers DIAZ and of everybody participating in the revolution. It is reported that DIAZ is alive, and that he has quitted the country in disgust. The Government allows no tolerance to be used to private parties. The forced enlistment of soldiers continues. Many of the Indians have been stripped of all their laborers. The forced enlistment (compulsory) officer was entered on the night of the 27th, and 30 prisoners were pressed into the army. This is regarded as a fresh cause for the liberty of the Press. The Government is confident of being able to put down the revolutionists, and the opinion in commercial and other circles is in favor of the ultimate triumph of the Juaristas. It is said that the real centre of the insurrection is now in the north, and that the Government is pressing hard on that region. Gen. CULLEN BRYANT has arrived at Vera Cruz, and proceeds immediately to the capital. Vera Cruz reports are unfavorable to the revolution. The revolutionists threaten the confiscation of the estates of their opponents in case they are successful. An Englishman on his way to the capital from Vera Cruz was robbed of $15,000.

TAMPICO, March 2.—Riots broke out in Guadalajara caused by the forced levies of troops. A formidable pronunciamiento has taken place in the State of Hidalgo. Jealousies are springing among the revolutionary leaders. It is reported that Gen. ROCHA has sent false news of his movements to the Government. The removal of the seat of Government to Vera Cruz is discussed. It is considered that the Government would be in a better position there to ask and receive aid from the United States in case of necessity. Senator JUAREZ is confident of the full confirmation of his ultimate success. The editors of the capital have formed a society, the members of which agree to abstain from mutual personal attacks in future when discussing politics or other matters.

FRANCE.

Payment of the Indemnity—The Need of National Regeneration—The Minister—Troubles Feared in Paris.

PARIS, March 8.—The payment of two milliards of the war indemnity, together with the interest to date on the remaining three milliards, was completed yesterday at Strasbourg. This gives France entire control of six departments, in which she is allowed to maintain as large a military force as she desires. The Assembly today rejected the proposition of Deputy BETHMY to erect on the Hill of Treodore a temple to Jesus Christ, as a testimony of belief in God, necessary for the national regeneration. It is expected that Minister DUFAURE will succeed ex-Chamber in case of confidence on the question of the withdrawal of M. POUYER-QUERTIER from the Government. Troops are concentrating in and around Paris on a pretention of formal trouble on the 18th anniversary of the 18th of March. Gambetta's creation from Blanco to Algeria is encroaching, and is aided and stimulated by France. JAUVIER DE LA MOURE, the Ex-Prefect of Nice, has sued CLEMENCEAU-FRANCIS for false imprisonment, and has challenged one of the writers on the Paris Press.

Secret Appointment of a Roman Primate of Poland—Supervision of Schools.

BERLIN, March 8.—The Government has discovered that the Pope has secretly appointed the Archbishop of Rouen Primate of Poland. This Primacy has been long extinct. When Poland was a Kingdom, one of the functions of the Primate was to act as Regent in case of the death or absence of the Sovereign. The Upper House of the Diet, today, passed the bill providing for the Government supervision of schools, by a vote of 136 to 26.

Report of the Sanity of O'Connor, the Fenian Assailant of the Queen.

LONDON, March 8.—A Commission of medical men, who were appointed to examine as to the sanity of ARTHUR O'CONNOR, the assailant of the Queen, have finished the duty assigned to them. They find that the man is of sound mind, but an enthusiastic Fenian. O'CONNOR, in explaining to the Commissioners why his weapon was not loaded when he assaulted Her Majesty, said he would have used a loaded pistol in his attack, but he only desired to frighten the Queen into acquiescence with his demand. Any fatal result of his assault would have brought the Prince of WALES to the Throne, and that event he does not desire to occur. He wishes Queen VICTORIA to the last English Monarch.

DR. HUNTON ON TRIAL.

His Examination Before the Conference at Worcester, Va.—An Investigation to Proceed.

WARRENTON, Va., March 8.—The case of Rev. Dr. HUNTON was called in the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South today.

The Rev. Mr. ROGERS said that grave rumors had been circulated in regard to Dr. HUNTON which were unnecessary to recite or mention. Dr. HUNTON being called before the bar of the Conference, came forward, and was carefully received by Bishop PAINE.

Dr. HUNTON proceeded to explain why he had left Baltimore, which was at the suggestion of his clerical brethren, and to save his wife and daughter mortification. Beyond what he Presiding Elder had said he would say nothing, but he would be in possession of the facts of the case and disclose them. He was charged with the seduction of Miss LIVERMORE, but although he was in the city this part of the programme was not carried out.

RAILROAD ACCIDENT.

The "Owl" Train from Springfield Thrown Off the Track—Ten or Twelve Passengers Injured.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 8.—The "Owl" passenger train, this morning, from this city for New-York, was thrown from the track, about two miles below the Springfield Depot. The train was running around a curve at the rate of only about fifteen miles an hour, when it encountered a broken rail. The engine and the Adams Express car passed over the break, but the four cars next following—the baggage, mail, smoking, and one ordinary passenger car—went down an embankment. Behind them were three sleeping-cars, all of which left the track, but did not run off the embankment, and no one in these cars was injured. Altogether not more than ten or twelve persons were injured, and, it is believed, none fatally. Among those hurt mostly by bruises and wounds are Admiral DU BOSLAN, of Washington; Gen. WILSON, of Hartford, very badly cut in the head; Mr. Matthew M. Coughlin, of Hartford, arm and head; Z. K. Forbes, of Troy, N. Y., head; E. R. Thompson, bruises; James McGann, of New-Haven, generally bruised; Sanford Tinkham, of this city, contusions, badly injured internally. It is wonderful that no more were killed. Why the train was not probably wrecked in an awful slaughter. The mail-car caught fire and was destroyed, with a large amount of mail matter.

BOSTON, Mass., March 8.—All the letters mailed in this city after 3 o'clock P. M. of Thursday for points south of Springfield were destroyed by fire in burning the mail-car which accident on the Boston and Albany Railroad. The letters for Albany and the West were saved and forwarded to their destination.

Additional List of Wounded.

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., March 8.—In addition to the list already forwarded of the wounded by this morning's railway disaster, Mrs. Wm. LEONARDS, of Chelsea, received severe internal injuries; WM. T. WALKER, of East Abington, a scalp wound and other bruises; Miss. MORTIMER, of Hartford, a wound in the abdomen; CHAS. WALKER, of Hartford, bruises about the head and a dislocated arm; Capt. SHAUNESY, of New-Haven, a wound on the head; Prof. JOHN P. STRICKNEY, of Newtonville, a bruise on the side and face. These make the whole number of the injured fifteen. All will probably recover.

CONNECTICUT.

The Political Campaign to Open Vigorously Next Week.

HARTFORD, Conn., March 8.—The political campaign speaking in Connecticut will open vigorously next week. The first public meeting will be held by the Republicans in this City on Wednesday evening, when addresses will be delivered by Gen. DANIEL E. SICKLES, and by Gen. WM. WILLIAMS, member of Congress from Indiana. The election occurs April 1, and the campaign speaking being crowded into two weeks preceding that date, it is expected that the work of these two weeks will be very spirited. The Democrats have announced no speakers as yet, but claim to be sure of a large registration of new voters. The registrars will immediately compile and publish their lists.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis and Probabilities.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 9—1 A. M.—The pressure has continued to recover itself over New-England, with northerly to westerly winds and clear weather generally. It has continued diminishing from the Mississippi eastward over the Ohio and Atlantic and Middle States. The area of snow that extended last night over the Middle States, and that of rain over Virginia, the South Atlantic and Gulf States. Strong barometer has extended eastward over the Upper Mississippi Valley and Western Tennessee, with clearing weather, northwesterly winds, and falling temperature. The area of low barometer is central over Northern Louisiana.

PROBABILITIES.

The area of snow will extend eastward over the New-England States during to-morrow and to-morrow evening; the barometer will continue falling from the lower lakes to Florida, and eastward to the Atlantic; the very low barometer will continue moving north-eastwardly over Southern Michigan and into Canada; the wind will veer to easterly over the New-England States to-night, and to-morrow morning; it will be brisk to high and cleaning south-easterly and southerly over the Middle States to-night; rising barometer, falling temperature and north-westerly winds will extend during the night to Lake Michigan, Southern Ohio, and probably South Carolina, and on Sunday over Michigan, Lake Erie and Western New-York, and probably Central for the Atlantic and Gulf coasts to-night, but increasing to brisk easterly to southerly winds are probable for the Middle and East Atlantic coasts on Saturday.

IN NEW-YORK CITY.

Yesterday was pleasant, but the quicksilver had not reached or high a point as 40° (with but one exception) since Feb. 23. The thermometer indicated, at 6 A. M., 25°; 11 A. M., 30°; 3 P. M., 32°; 6 P. M., 30°; 9 P. M., 28°; Mean, 29.33, 30.33. Corresponding date last year, thermometer, 30°, 40°, 51°, 40°.

Not a Member—The Van Steenbergh Affair.

HOBOKEN, N. J., March 8.—The investigation into the Van Steenburgh affair shows there are no grounds for suspicion. The body reached Kingston accompanied by an undertaker, named JACOB KRUITZER, and a young man named LEMON, the young lady's lover, both of New-York. LEMON does not claim to have been the lady's husband, and is perfectly willing to have an investigation. The undertaker had the burial certificate of the lady's death by pneumonia, and it was permitted to remove the body from the City. The whole affair seems to have been gotten up by gossips and parties interested in slandering the lady and her friends.

The New-Jersey Legislature.

TRENTON, N. J., March 8.—The Senate was not in session this morning. In the House the Corporation Committee reported the Bound Brook and New-Brunswick Railroad bill. Also the supplement to the charter of the Hudson County Railroad Company. Also the bill to consolidate the Bound Brook and Easton Railroad Companies. Also the Jersey City Omnibus bill. The same Committee reported adversely on the bill to appoint Railroad Commissioners. Also against the bill relative to gas companies in Hudson City. Also against the Camden and Gloucester Horse Railroad Company bill. The bill to appoint Commissioners to select jurors was ordered to a third reading. The House adjourned till Monday night.

Murder and Suicide.

ST. LOUIS, March 8.—CHARLES H. BURKLIN, living at No. 213 South Fifth-street, shot his wife about 7 o'clock this evening, and then shot himself. Mrs. BURKLIN has two wounds, one just below the nipple and the other one in the abdomen, and is lying in a critical condition. BURKLIN's wound in the head is also considered, and although still alive, he cannot recover. BURKLIN is represented as being a worthless, dissipated man, and very abusive to his wife, who is represented to be a very estimable woman, and who has supported her husband for the last two years. The immediate cause of the shooting seems to have been Mrs. BURKLIN's announcement this evening that she designed to apply for a divorce.

Message at an Accomplished Swindler.

JOHN ISAACS, who was arrested in Rockhill on Saturday last, on a charge of swindling Mr. CRANE, a resident of that place, out of $2,000, by means of a worthless check, was released by Justice CORBIT on $500 bail. Yesterday Mr. CRANE received a telegraphic dispatch from ISAACS, requesting him to withdraw the charges and then left the village for parts unknown. A few hours after the dispatch was received dispatches were received from Whitehall, Troy, and New-Haven, Conn., asking for his detention, but he fair to obtain or recognize the swindler.

THE STATE LEGISLATURE.

The Rhine-Rule Repeal Bill Reported in both Houses.

A Bill to Remove the Mayor, Chamberlain and Other New-York Officials Reported—Millerism in Session—Passed and Rejected—A Savings Bank Amended—Bills in the Senate.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

ALBANY, Friday, March 8, 1872.

The Assembly Railroad Committee this morning presented their report on the Erie bills, in accordance with the agreement arrived at last evening. The majority of the Committee, comprising the Chairman (Mr. WHITE) and Messrs. WHITEHEAD, LEWIS, GRANNISS and G. W. L. SMITH, reported the O'Brien or Southward bill, with one or two amendments, which leave it substantially as reported by the Senate Judiciary Committee yesterday, and published in full in today's TIMES. Mr. SMITH, from the minority of the Committee, asked and obtained leave to make a minority report, accompanied by a bill which is the same as previously described in this correspondence, and which, had the Committee reported yesterday morning, would have been the majority instead of the minority report. On motion of Mr. HUSTED, both reports were ordered to be printed, and were made the special order for Thursday next. The Senate, on motion of Mr. O'BRIEN, also made their report on Erie a special order for next week, milestone Wednesday as the day of battle. It is suspected that the result of the contest in the Senate will materially affect the same in the lower House, just as the New-Hampshire election is expected to influence that which follows in Connecticut. The fierce whirs of the last two or three days have blown away one-half the mains that have so long suspended from the heads of the blind goddess that surmounts the dome of the Capitol, which may or may not be indicative of the fate that awaits Justice in the halls beneath. The scales had been out of gear for some time past, and the absence of Albany had particularly remarked the unevenness of the balance, as it swayed to and fro in the wind, since the reign of Boss TWEED commenced in the legislative halls. The dropping away of one-half of the symbol is therefore regarded as rather a favorable omen than otherwise, for it shows that the goddess has grown to have some respect for appearances at least, and refuses longer to make a pretense of even equal justice" while holding an uneven balanced scale.

EXIT HALL & CO.

The Assembly Committee on Cities this morning reported the bill mentioned in last night's dispatches, to remove Mayor HALL, Chamberlain FOLEY, Corporation Counsel O'GORMAN and Corporation-Attorney PORTER from the cares of office. It is feared here that the sudden appearance of the ghost of ANDY GARVEY will so shock the nerves of those overlooked, and care-worn officials that they will hurry off to join their sick comrades at the mineral springs of Canada before the bill can go through the Legislature. In that case they will get the best of Superintendent MILLER of the Insurance Department, who is waiting to be removed.

THE INSURANCE SUPERINTENDENT.

The rumor that Gov. HOFFMAN had requested MILLER to resign his office is fully confirmed by inquiries made in well-informed quarters, and it is further stated that the Superintendent refuses to act upon the suggestion of the Governor. MILLER was appointed two years ago, and his term expires on the 1st of January, 1873. He can only be removed for cause before the expiration of his term, the same as Sheriffs. It remains to be seen whether Gov. HOFFMAN will exercise the power of removal vested in him, or whether he will wait for the Legislature to oust MILLER by abolishing the office.

THE GREENWICH-STREET RAILWAY.

A formidable petition was presented this morning, signed by Chas. O'Conor, Henry Ward Beecher, Gen. John Ewing, Hon. G. Hilton Scribner, Chas. H. Marshall, and 200 others, asking that the New-York Elevated Railway (known as the "Greenwich-street") be allowed to "extend its operations according to the wants of the City."

HUSTED AND RYDER.

The report of the Ways and Means Committee on the investigation of the Husted gravel contract was called from the table by Mr. ALVORD and unanimously adopted, after which Mr. HUSTED rose and thanked the Assembly for affording him an opportunity to defend himself against the charges of an "irresponsible person named RYDER." He read to the House an extract from a letter received by him from RYDER this morning, in which the writer says: "If you have not the contract for the master for gravel I think I could aid you in selling to the parks. I think it will be to your interest to put the business into my hands." Here was a man, said HUSTED, who had made charges against him which he had utterly failed to sustain, of having corruptly obtained a contract to supply gravel for the City of New-York, and who now comes forward and offers to aid him in getting a monopoly of the business.

THE CHARTER.

Ex-Mayor OTTERY expressed his views before the Senate Committee, this afternoon, on the Seventy's charter. He gave them the benefit of his experience as Mayor of New-York, and was of the opinion that the proposed charter was defective in that it combined legislative and executive functions in the Board of Aldermen, gave the Mayor too little power in cases where the Aldermen refused to confirm his appointments and created too many heads of Departments. He thought the Controller should be elected, and not appointed. He hoped the Committee would ask the opinion of the Court of Appeals on the constitutionality of the cumulative voting feature before adopting the charter. Mr. SPENCER, Mr. STERN and others also addressed the Committee. Gen. COGHLAND was present, but did not take any part in the discussion.

THE MIDLAND AND THE SAVINGS BANKS.

Today we had the most interesting debate of the session in the Senate. It was on a bill to facilitate the construction of the Midland Railroad. It empowered savings banks throughout the State to invest in the bonds of any township, town or city in the State of New Jersey to an amount not exceeding in the aggregate the sum of $750,000, when such bonds should be issued in aid of the construction of the Montclair Railway, and Manhattan Railway being virtually a part of the Oswego and Midland. The greatest opposition exists to aid in the construction of the Midland. But the savings bank question is the bone, involving the feelings of legislators just now very closely. The opposition developed itself at once to the passage of the bill. Senator JOHNSON moved to strike out the enacting clause. He declared it was unwise to permit our savings banks to go outside of the State to invest their money to be subverted by R. LEE'S railroad. Senator New-Jersey frame did not always pass in search of their bonds; that he knew to his sorrow, holding the owner of some such bonds, on which he had been unable to collect the interest. Some surprise was created by the fact that the Senator could not remember the name of the New-Jersey railroad he spoke in question. Senator MADDOX, Chairman of the Railroad Committee, made a strong appeal for the Midland, and urged the passage of the bill. Senator RUSSELL moved the Senate could not be led away by sympathy for the Midland to permit our savings banks to invest in the bonds of another State, every member of the Legislature could exercise his conscience. Finally an amendment was offered and agreed to, limiting the amount which any bank should be allowed to invest in the bonds of any of its deposits, and as amended it was ordered to a third reading.

CESSIONS OF MONEYED CORPORATIONS.

A bill introduced by Senator CHAMBERLAIN, giving the right of appointment by commissioners of municipal corporations against the present power of appointment as to whether the power of appointment lies in the Senate Committee of the Whole, both the violent MADDEN repelled first on the ground that the Senate could not constitutionally act upon the matter, and said this road very much like another Atlantic and Great Western affair. The Committee have a suspicion that the Broadway property-owners are favor the Central Underground plan are behind the scenes, but whether it is this any plan for an underground road in Broadway, it may secure the grant from the Legislature.

The trial of Mayor HALL attracted yesterday a larger attendance than on previous days is having become known that ANDREW J. GARVEY intended to divulge all the circumstances connected with the recent operations of TWEED, HALL, CONNOLLY, and the other persons engaged in the recent gigantic stealings from the City Treasury. The Court-room was filled with a crowd consisting of Police Justices, Deputy Sheriffs, politicians, office-holders, Secretaries and a mixed mass of citizens in general. One Police Justice, who is alleged to have been mixed up with many of the peculiar transactions of the City, was seated near the counsel for the defense, and seemed, by his constant conversation with one or the other, to be acting somewhat in the capacity of a supporting counsel.

The morning session was nearly all taken up with arguments by the counsel for the defense on the law of admitting as evidence the testimony of ANDREW J. GARVEY, relative to the honesty or dishonesty of his claim. Mr. STOUGHTON seemed to think that as the Mayor had been charged in the indictment with not omitting his duty, testimony should not be taken with regard to his omitting fraudulent accounts, the former being an act of non-feasance, while the latter was an act of malfeasance. Judge DALY, however, decided that the evidence was admissible, and ANDREW J. GARVEY was again put on the witness

NEW-YORK, SATURDAY, MARCH 9, 1861.

The Inauguration and Cabinet.

The Inauguration of Mr. LINCOLN and the formation of his Cabinet are now matters of history. The ceremonies of the former were carried out in accordance with the programme published in THE TIMES of yesterday morning, and the latter has been received with general favor by the people of the country. The Inaugural Address, which we publish in full this morning, is a calm, dignified, and conciliatory State paper, which will command the respect of the whole country, and which, we trust, will have the effect of allaying the excitement which has prevailed in the public mind for the last few months. It is a plain, straightforward statement of the principles which Mr. LINCOLN and his friends have always professed, and which they have a right to carry out in the administration of the Government, so long as they do not violate the Constitution, or infringe upon the rights of the States. It is a document which will bear the closest scrutiny, and which will be found to contain no sentiment which is not in accordance with the principles of the Constitution, and the usages of the Government. It is the Address of a President who is determined to administer the Government in the interests of the whole country, and not in the interests of a party, and who will endeavor to preserve the peace of the country, if it can be done consistently with the principles of the Constitution and the rights of the States.

The Cabinet which has been selected by Mr. LINCOLN is composed of gentlemen who have been prominently before the country for many years, and who are well known to the people. It is not a Cabinet of politicians, but of statesmen, and we have no doubt that it will receive the support of a majority of the people of the United States. The selection of Mr. SEWARD as Secretary of State will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country, as he is a statesman of the highest order of ability, and of the most unimpeachable integrity. He has been prominently before the country for more than twenty years, and has always been the advocate of peace, and of the preservation of the Union. His appointment will be a guarantee to the country that the Administration will not be controlled by the ultra men of the Republican party, but that it will be conducted in the interests of the whole country. Mr. CHASE, the Secretary of the Treasury, is a gentleman of the highest character, and of the most unimpeachable integrity. He has been prominently before the country for many years, and has always been the advocate of peace and conciliation. He is a statesman of the highest order of ability, and his appointment will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country. Mr. BLAIR, the Postmaster-General, is a gentleman of the highest character, and of the most unimpeachable integrity. He has been prominently before the country for many years, and has always been the advocate of peace and conciliation. He is a statesman of the highest order of ability, and his appointment will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country. Mr. BATES, the Attorney-General, is a gentleman of the highest character, and of the most unimpeachable integrity. He has been prominently before the country for many years, and has always been the advocate of peace and conciliation. He is a statesman of the highest order of ability, and his appointment will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country. Mr. WELLES, the Secretary of the Navy, is a gentleman of the highest character, and of the most unimpeachable integrity. He has been prominently before the country for many years, and has always been the advocate of peace and conciliation. He is a statesman of the highest order of ability, and his appointment will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country. Mr. SMITH, the Secretary of the Interior, is a gentleman of the highest character, and of the most unimpeachable integrity. He has been prominently before the country for many years, and has always been the advocate of peace and conciliation. He is a statesman of the highest order of ability, and his appointment will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country. Mr. MONTGOMERY BLAIR, the Postmaster-General, is a gentleman of the highest character, and of the most unimpeachable integrity. He has been prominently before the country for many years, and has always been the advocate of peace and conciliation. He is a statesman of the highest order of ability, and his appointment will be hailed with satisfaction by the whole country. Mr. USHER, the Secretary of the Interior

The Bidders.

Special Dispatch to The New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, March 9.—When Mr. Cooke, of Illinois, a few days ago, obtained a resolution of inquiry from the House of Representatives directing the Secretary of the Interior to furnish information relative to the Terminal Railway Company, and the relations of Messrs. Patterson and Goulding to it, he probably did not imagine that the investigation would bring to light such interesting facts as have been developed in the course of the examination of Secretary Teller and Assistant Secretary Chandler. Mr. Cooke's resolution was introduced in the House on the 19th of February, and was adopted on the 20th. It called upon the Secretary of the Interior to furnish the House with a statement of the organization of the Terminal Railway Company, the names of the persons who had subscribed to the capital stock, the amount paid in by each, the names of the persons who had been elected officers of the company, and the names of the persons who had been appointed by the Secretary of the Interior to represent the Government in the directory of the company. The resolution also called upon the Secretary to inform the House whether the Government directors had been elected in accordance with the provisions of the act of Congress authorizing the construction of the road, and if not, why not; whether the Government directors had been allowed to participate in the deliberations of the board, and if not, why not; whether the Government directors had been furnished with the books, papers, and documents of the company, and if not, why not; whether the Government directors had been furnished with the reports of the engineers and other officers

First Mortgage, sinking Fund, Land-Grant Bonds,

DUE JULY 1, 1910.

INTEREST, 7 PER CENT. GOLD; FREE OF GOVERNMENT TAX. PAYABLE JAN. 1 AND JULY 1 IN NEW-YORK.

THE CAIRO AND FULTON RAILROAD is the main artery for west-bound travel by the State of Arkansas. It is the connecting link between the Illinois Central and Iron Mountain Railroad and under the same management. It will connect the St. Louis roads and the Illinois Central railroad with the Texas Central Railroad, the Southern Pacific Railroad and the Texas system of railroads. Its length is 201 miles, and it deviates from a straight line but six miles. It has no grades over fifteen feet to the mile. It runs through the most productive portion of the Capital Land Grant. The Land-Grant of 1,522,560 acres, is one of the most extensive and valuable ever made to any road by Congress. The main road is under contract and pushing. About sixty miles are ironed and track-laying will go on at the rate of about half a mile a day until the connection of Little Rock with St. Louis is completed. THE SALE OF ARMS.

Continuation of Senator Schurz's Investigation.

Examination of Gen. Dyer—The Counsel for Germany Denies the Existence of Any Secret Agreement—How the Advertising and Sales Were Conducted.

Special Dispatch to the New-York Times.

WASHINGTON, March 8.—The arms investigation was continued today by the Senate Committee, and the examination of Gen. DYER at the Arsenal. The General is in feeble health, and he is confined to his residence, where the Committee met. The evidence was confirmatory of that of Secretary BELKNAP and Col. BENET, heretofore given.

Mr. SCHURZ, counsel for Germany, devoted his attention today to ascertaining the stripped condition of the arsenals, by reason of the almost profligate sale of arms. The passages between him and Gen. DYER on this subject, and the probable emergency of a great war at an early day, are quite interesting, and a verbatim report is here given.

Question (By Mr. SCHURZ).—From this report it appears that the Board recommended that the law be changed? Answer.—Yes.

Q.—That is, that the arm then in the hands of the troops, of the model of 1866, be modified and transformed? A.—Yes.

Q.—Is it well known to you that at the present moment the breech-loading musket is the only musket that can hold the field in case of war. If a war or a rebellion should suddenly break out in this country, making necessary the organization of a large army, what would you do for arms? A.—We have not enough to arm a very large army, we should go to work and turn them as fast and fine as we could.

Q.—Would you not be in very great want of breech-loaders? A.—No, not very great want.

Q.—You have not any to put in the hands of the troops? A.—We could get in all some 75,000, I suppose, and I presume in thirty days we could get a thousand a day from REMINGTON's manufactory alone; he would certainly turn out 25,000 in a month; then there are other manufactories.

Q.—You recommended yourself that there should be at least a million breech-loaders kept in the arsenals to provide for emergencies? A.—I did.

Q.—Suppose an emergency of that kind which we had to contend with ten years ago should arise; that a new rebellion or a great foreign war should occur requiring the arming of an army of say 500,000 or 600,000 men, they would have to be armed with breech-loaders, and would you not have to go into the market for them? A.—We should have to do that.

Q.—Would you not be very glad, then, to buy back those arms that you sold to RICHARDSON? A.—I should do it with great reluctance.

Q. (By Mr. CARPENTER)—What do you think is the probability of a great war breaking out here in the country within thirty days? A.—You gentlemen can judge better than I can.

Q.—Do you not think you can manufacture arms enough to arm a large army as soon as we shall probably get involved in war? A.—I did not think we were stripping the country to a dangerous point.

Q. (By Mr. SCHURZ)—How many can you manufacture in the Springfield Armory? A.—I made 1,000 a day.

Q. And you say REMINGTON could turn out 25,000 in a month? A.—Yes, and probably 30,000 in thirty days.

In the matter of advertising the sales, on which a point has been sought to be made, Gen. DYER thus explicitly testifies.

Q. (By the CHAIRMAN)—Were advertisements in all cases made for the sale of these various ordnance stores? A.—Congress by law in July, 1868, authorized the Secretary of War to sell at private sale when he saw fit, but required that the sales should be advertised for thirty days. The rule which was followed in a great variety of stores was to advertise portions. For instance if we had three or four thousand Springfield muskets to be sold if we advertised 100,000 of them for thirty days, in compliance with the letter of the law, we could sell afterward any portion of that lot; that was under instructions given by the Secretary of War, who said that it was my intention and that of every specific article should be advertised, but that the object was to have the class and the kind of stores made known; instead of advertising the whole half million, the advertisements of a portion of them was considered to be a compliance with the law.

Q. (By Mr. AMES)—Was that Secretary BELKNAP? A.—No, Sir; Gen. SCHOFIELD.

Q. (By the CHAIRMAN)—All the ordnance stores sold were so advertised before sale. A.—They were all.

By Mr. SCHURZ—The law reads that ordnance stores may be sold at private sale after offer at public sale on thirty days' notice. Did you understand that they had to be offered at public sale first before they could be sold at private sale? A.—Yes; not that all of a class should be offered at public sale before they could be sold at private sale, but that some representative of the class should be offered, and then that all of that class might be sold from time to time as the Secretary saw fit.

By the CHAIRMAN—That is, you advertised in gross that you had them for sale at public sale, and after the time had expired, then you sold them at private sale? A.—Yes, Sir.

Q. (By Mr. SAWYER)—Suppose you offered by advertisement 100,000 Springfield muskets, and the 100,000 were put forward and taken up by purchasers, would you conceive that you had the right, after that 100,000 were exhausted, to sell another 100,000? A.—I did conceive that, under the instruction of the Secretary of War, Gen. SCHOFIELD, I had authority to do that.

Q.—And the law saying that after thirty days they might sell at public or private sale, did you conceive that you ought to offer at auction, or could you sell them at private sale after such notice, without any offer to sell them at auction? A.—I considered that I could sell them at private sale.

Q. (By Mr. SCHURZ)—How did you construe that clause of the law which enjoined upon you to offer them at public sale? What was the modus operandi of offering them at public sale? A.—Mostly well advertised for the thirty days, inviting sealed bids.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS.

SECOND SESSION.

SENATE.....WASHINGTON, Friday, March 8.

A memorial complaining of grievances from Customs-house officials in Bath, Me., was presented.

The resolution was passed asking for information as to what portion of the river front in New-Orleans was occupied by the Government.

THE DISTRICT BOARD OF WORKS.

Mr. WILSON also submitted an order which, on his motion, was laid on the table, requesting the President, to suspend the Board of Public Works of the District of Columbia until the House Committee now investigating the charges against it shall have reported.

BILLS INTRODUCED.

Among the new bills were one to provide for paying women who acted as volunteer nurses during the war at the rate of $20 a month, and one providing for the refunding to State officers the taxes paid on their salaries.

RECOMMENDATIONS BY SENATORS.

Mr. TRUMBULL referred to the resolution offered by Mr. CONKLING some time ago, requesting the President to transmit to the Senate a statement of the recommendations by Senators for office made by the Senators from New-York, Illinois, Missouri and Nebraska, and expressed surprise that it had not been called up by the mover of it.

Mr. FRELINGHUYSEN said he understood that the reason Mr. CONKLING had not called it up was, that he had promised Mr. MORTON not to call it up in his absence.

Mr. TRUMBULL then gave notice of the following amendment to the resolution of Mr. CONKLING, inquiring of the President as to the recommendations for office made by certain Senators; also, that he furnish the Senate with a copy of the record or list kept in his office showing the action following the appointments or removals therein which may be made, or charged to each of the Senators aforesaid, and to what Senator; together with the names of the persons recommended to or for removal from office by each of said Senators, and all papers in his office showing whether it was a request for an appointment or removal—the indorsement of recommendations made by other persons, the names of such others, or of the character of the indorsement, whether for or in reference to the applicant; in reference to the fitness of others to him by the head of a department, without any statement of opinion by the Senator in regard thereto; and if any appointments or removals have in any manner been made at the instance or request of any third party, who has acted as a go-between either of said Senators, New-York or the Supervising Surveyor or Collector in any manner, and it be not inconsistent that such appointments or removals would be agreeable to or even desired by, any Senator, and if so, giving the names of the third party and of the person who so represented or desired it to be done, and all papers showing whether any such appointment or removals have been made at the solicitation of ROSWELL HART, an employé of the Treasury Department, serving in the State of New-York, or of A. S. LAYLE, late Naval Officer at the Port of New-York, or of A. B. CORNELL, Surveyor of the Port of New-York.

PAY OF SENATOR ABEL.

Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Military Affairs, reported the bill to establish the pay of the enlisted men of the army.

RESIGNATION OF JONATHAN TRUMBULL AND ROGER SHERMAN.

At 3 o'clock the statues of JONATHAN TRUMBULL and ROGER SHERMAN were formally presented to the United States in the presence of the House of Representatives, in the hall of the House of Representatives. In making the presentation, Messrs. BOUTWELL and BIBLE made appropriate addresses, which were very attentively listened to by the members and the galleries.

Mr. ANTHONY offered a resolution accepting the statues, and returning the thanks of Congress to the people of Connecticut for presenting them, and finally authorizing the removal of the statues. The resolution was unanimously agreed to.

THE DEFICIENCY APPROPRIATION.

The Senate then resumed the consideration of the Deficiency Appropriation bill.

CIVIL SERVICE REFORM.

While pending motion was on Mr. SUMNER's motion to refer the resolution to the Committee on Civil Service reform it ended.

Mr. HOWE was willing that our civil service should approach as near to it which would be the model of the Senator from Illinois himself, he would find a simple examination would show that it was not in so bad a condition after all. But whatever might be its real condition, the Republican Party, and not the President, was responsible for it. If the laws regulating appointments were bad Congress was, of course, responsible, and if the President would not heed the remedy was therefore with Congress. But Mr. TRUMBULL was more responsible for existing defects in the laws than anybody else, because he was the chairman of the Judiciary Committee, whose especial business it was to consider defects in the laws and frame the amendments. As to the actual condition of the service, he (Mr. HOWE) agreed that it was worse than it ought to be, and that it ought to be amended. They ought not to be changed every day. Mr. TRUMBULL, in his making of a criminal offense for a member of Congress to recommend a candidate for office, had forbidden by the Civil Service Commission, and he proceeded to discuss the clause, of which he confessed the former. He considered, he said, he rendered a good service to the country
